

The Ursula Hoff Institute Inc. invites you to the Kenneth W Park
presentation of

NORTH MELBOURNE BRASS
Gabrieli, Gershwin, Grainger and much more
Recital & Soiree

Friday 22 August 2014 from 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm
Melbourne Savage Club, 12 Bank Place, Melbourne

North Melbourne Brass brings two trumpeters and two trombonists together, each sharing a great passion and enthusiasm for brass music. Rob Sims, Alison Wright (trumpets), Dennis Freeman and Glenn Bardwell (trombones) bring a wealth of experience to the Savage stage, having performed in orchestras and other musical ensembles, all over the world. They will share with you the rich history of brass music through the ages and you will be able to find out answers to all those questions that you have been desperate to ask e.g. what is a sackbut, why do brass instruments have water valves?

North Melbourne Brass look forward to sharing a night of wonderful music entertainment with you.

Format for the evening

Guests will be asked to arrive from 6:00 pm in time for the recital start at 6:30 pm sharp. Please note the later start time. This will give people time to enjoy a welcome glass of sparkling wine. Seating is unreserved. The seating arrangement will be in that quirky Savage Club salon style! You will enjoy the ambience and intimacy of the Social Room and the close proximity to our performers. The recital will last about 50 or so minutes. There will be a post recital soiree with wine, beer, juice and soft drinks being served along with canapés. Our musicians will join the guests at this time. The evening will finish around 9:00 pm. It will be a memorable night of beautiful music. Places are limited. The cost of the evening will be $80 per person. Prepayment is required to secure your booking. For further information please call/email Alan Egan on (03) 9606 0501
